Unreal Authorized Training Program

Program Overview

The demand for Unreal Engine skills is rapidly increasing across the globe. According to a 2018 survey conducted by Burning Glass Technologies, the demand for Unreal Engine skills in the workforce is projected to grow 119% over the next 10 years. Epic Games is committed to delivering world-class Unreal training and we know there are many out there who share our passion. For this reason, we developed the Unreal Authorized Training Program.

The Unreal Authorized Training Program's purpose is to support those who commit to a high standard of Unreal Engine training. Being an Unreal Authorized Training Center or an Unreal Authorized Instructor means that Epic will support your training process so that together, we can ensure customers are getting the highest quality of Unreal Engine learning. Our aim is to give professionals the skills necessary to be better prepared for the constantly evolving and highly competitive job market.
